Dear Annie:

This is to request two grants. One is to Thomas Hilliard, a clinical psychologist who has been studying and trying to wed law in improving social justice. The specific project he is planning now is an examination of the psychological effects of the Adjustment Center at San Quentin on inmates. He will also provide consultation as appropriate, having been one of the psychologists who helped to pick the jury that freed Angela Davis. Currently he is between jobs and trying to devote himself more effectively and more independently through freelancing. He has been national chairman of the Association of Black Psychologists. His grant is for $3,000. Send it to Dr. Thomas Hilliard, 2485 Erin Place, San Francisco, California 94080. His social security number is 226-62-1896.

The other grant, for $2,000, is to the Center for the Study of Social Problems. It is newly begun and aims to accomplish innovative work as its name implies. Specifically, in this instance, they will conduct interracial and non-partisan seminars among radical intellectuals. These seminars will be informal, open, free of charge of course, addressing the current direction of society and trying to probe beneath platitudinous interpretations. Though some of the participants are writers and will find their writings stimulated perhaps by the study and discussion, it is expected that those and others can better find their own identities and understand and accept their present contributions to society. Being new, the center does not yet have a permanent address. Although the check should be addressed to the Centerfor the Study of Social Problems, it should be mailed c/o Richard Lichtman, 1640 Scenic, Berkeley, California, 94709.

Please let me know if there are any problems.

Sincerely,

Nathan Hare
